THE LOCAL AREA

Inveresk is a beautiful conservation village approximately 7 miles from the heart of Edinburgh, the location is popular with commuters and there are regular train services from Musselburgh which take approximately 8 minutes to Edinburgh.

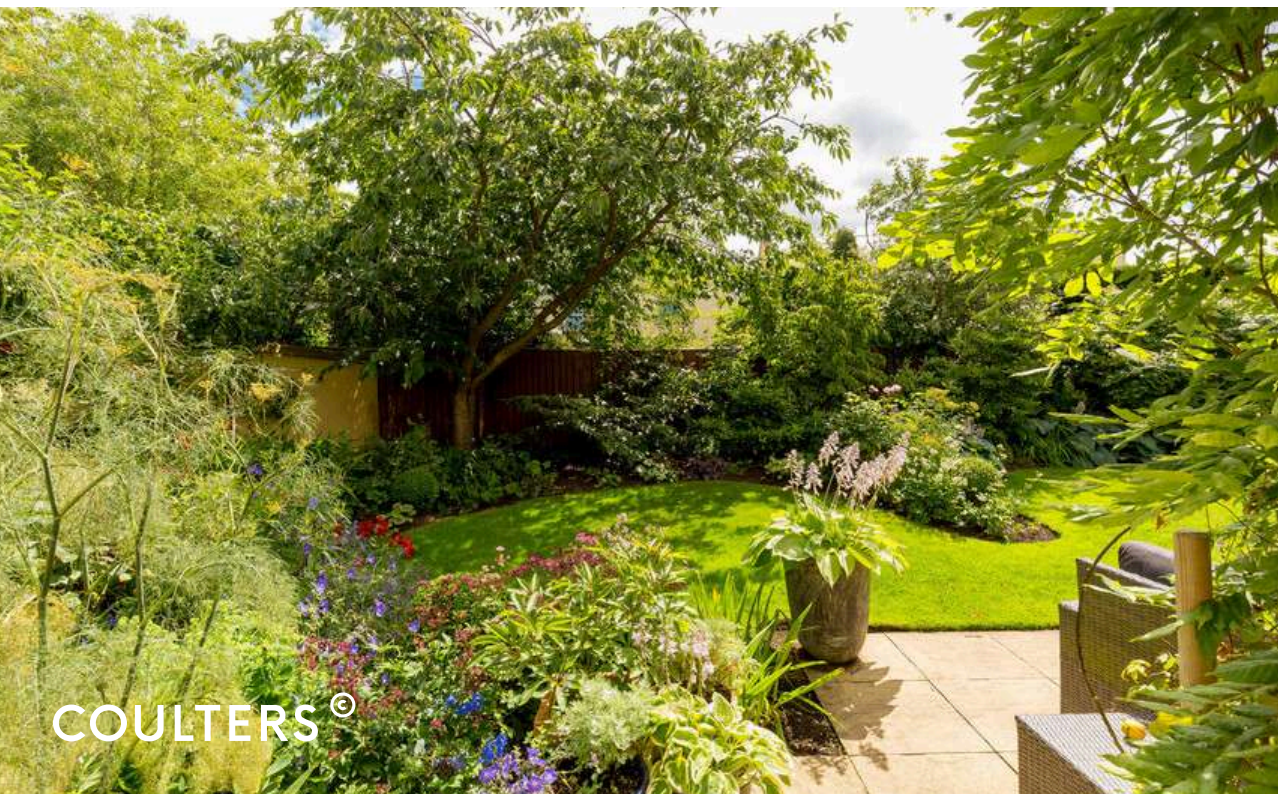

The historic town of Musselburgh and Fort Kinnaird Retail Park are both nearby and provide an excellent selection of shops and restaurants.

There are a variety of sporting and leisure amenities including Musselburgh Golf and Race Courses. Local gyms and fitness classes, as well as a sports centre with a swimming pool.

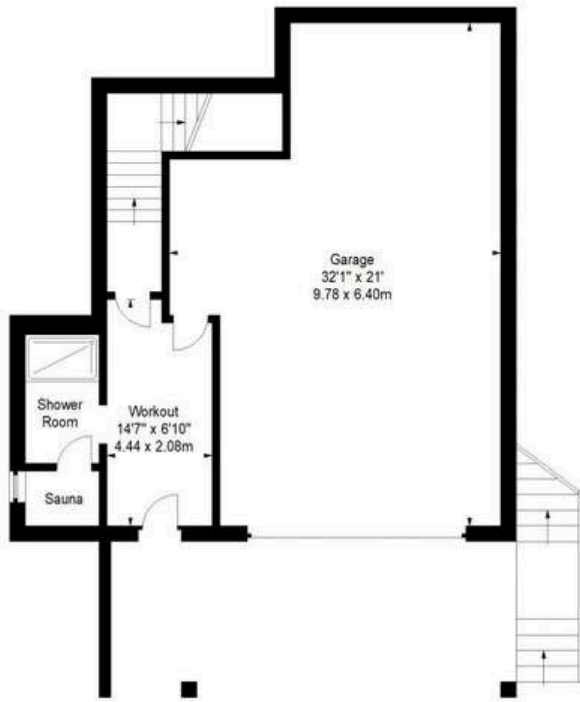

The gorgeous countryside in and around Inveresk provide no shortage of routes for walking, cycling, running and enjoying the great outdoors, whilst the beach is a short drive away.

There are good local primary and secondary schooling and the renowned Loretto independent school is easily accessible, with further private education choices readily available in Edinburgh and Haddington.

The proximity of the City Bypass and the A1 provides fast and easy access to Edinburgh International Airport and Scotland's motorway network.
