AREA

Cramond is an extremely desirable, historic residential district with a quaint coastal ambience, just six miles to the north west of Edinburgh and within easy reach of the City Centre. With a rich heritage dating back more than two thousand years, the picturesque waterfront and harbour provide a tranquil break from the hustle and bustle of the capital. There are plenty of traditional pubs & bistros to visit and lovely walks along the banks of the River Almond which can be accessed directly from the cul de sac. There are a wealth of local amenities in neighbouring Barnton and Davidsons Mains, with more extensive shopping and leisure facilities provided in nearby Corstorphine and at the Gyle Shopping Centre. The area is well placed for fantastic schools in both the public and private sector, being within the catchment for Cramond Primary School and The Royal High School, and some of Edinburgh's finest independent schools are also within easy reach. Thanks to its position, Cramond enjoys close proximity to Edinburgh City Bypass, the Queensferry Crossing and Edinburgh International Airport.

Outstanding public transport links, as well as an extensive network of cycle paths, also provide easy access into the city centre.
