Description

This is a traditional mid terraced villa offering generously proportioned (73m sq) accommodation on this established residential estate close to excellent local amenities, schools and the train station. The accommodation is in good decorative order and benefits from gas central heating and double glazing. It comprises an entrance hall, front facing livingroom with gas fire set within an attractive surround, rear facing fitted kitchen with appliances and generous storage in the rear hall, two double bedrooms, one with generous storage cupboards and a modern part panelled shower room.

Location

The historic town of Prestonpans is situated on the southern shore of the Firth of Forth surrounded by unspoilt countryside. The town is an extremely popular commuter base, being only three miles beyond Musselburgh and close to the A1 which links quickly and easily with Edinburgh City Centre via the City Bypass as well as having a railway station which gives access to central Edinburgh in around fifteen minutes. There are a number of local shops including a supermarket, schools and other social amenities within the town. Further shopping can be found a short distance away at Fort Kinnaird Retail Park, Newcraighall, which offers a selection of "High Street" shops and superstores. A variety of leisure facilities are available in the area including Prestonpans swimming pool, a choice of golf courses and several sandy beaches.

Gardens and Parking

There is a gated front garden with lawn and established flower borders. There is a larger, fully enclosed rear garden which is mainly laid to lawn, mature borders with a variety of plants, shrubs and trees, paved patio and gate to the rear access path.

Extras

All the fitted floor coverings, curtains, integrated gas hob, oven and cooker hood are included within the sale price.

Home Report

The property has been valued at £140,000 and the Home Report is available via the ESPC link.
