Location

Newtongrange itself has a thriving community and the property lies approximately 7 miles southeast of Edinburgh City Centre being extremely popular with commuters. Locally there is a selection of shops, schools, leisure, and recreational facilities. The local area also has a wealth of open countryside and a short journey away are the neighbouring towns of Dalkeith and Bonnyrigg where more extensive facilities can be found. There is also a Tesco food store at Hardengreen which is a short journey away. Regular bus services provide ease of commuting in and around the surrounding towns and to Edinburgh City Centre. Access to the A7/A68 and the City Bypass are nearby which in turn connects to all other major routes in and around the area. The construction of the Borders Railway Line has also improved transportation links with a station in Newtongrange providing access to Edinburgh and the Scottish Borders, making this the ideal commuter location.

Extras

All floor coverings, light fittings, blinds where fitted, electric cooker, remaining free-standing white goods and garden sheds. No warranty applies to any integrated appliance, free-standing white goods or other movable items included in the sale.
