Description

96 Currievale Drive is an end terrace villa situated on a generous plot with well-tended private gardens to the front, side and rear. Although requiring a little modernisation it gives any purchaser the opportunity to upgrade and design the interior to their own decorative tastes and specification. The accommodation comprises

- Entrance Vestibule
- Bright and spacious lounge with an abundance of natural light provided by the large picture window to the front overlooking the landscaped front garden. To the rear there is an open plan staircase leading to the upper floor.
- The kitchen is situated to the rear of the property and overlooks the beautiful, mature garden. It is a bright room with a good range of fitted units, plenty of room for a dining table and chairs and a door giving access to the garden.
- Upstairs the landing, which houses a useful storage cupboard, gives access to all rooms.
- There are two double bedrooms, the master bedroom is to the front and has generous fitted wardrobes. The second double bedroom is to the rear and benefits from glorious views to the Forth bridges and beyond.
- The shower room has a window giving natural light and a large shower cubicle. There is partial wall tiling as well as wall panelling.
- Gas central heating and double glazing have been installed.
- Externally, the property enjoys a generous plot with beautiful private gardens to the front, side and rear. The rear garden has a decked area and an abundance of mature plants, shrubs and trees. The property also benefits from a single garage.

Location

Nestling beneath the Pentland Hills on the outskirts of Edinburgh, the village of Currie, lies in a semi-rural location 7 miles to the southwest of Edinburgh city centre. Surrounded by beautiful countryside with access to the Water of Leith Walkway, the Union Canal and the Pentland Hills Regional Park, Currie also benefits from good local amenities, and an enviable community spirit. In Currie, there are fabulous places to socialise, eat and drink sitting alongside small local shops. A short drive away are the Gyle and Hermiston Gait shopping centres with a variety of high street stores and supermarkets. It is no surprise that it is an area popular with people who enjoy living in the city but also enjoy easy access to the countryside and open spaces.

The area has a very good public transport service, regular bus services running to and from Edinburgh as well as to the Gyle centre are joined by train services to both Edinburgh and Glasgow from Curriehill Station. Currie is also within easy reach of Edinburgh City bypass and thus the national motorway network and Edinburgh International Airport. There are useful park and ride facilities at nearby Hermiston and Ingliston. The area is well known for its excellent schooling at all levels with Heriot Watt Riccarton Campus also being within walking distance.
