25A HIGH STREET, NORTH BERWICK

The flat's front door opens to a hallway with storage, to the left is the living room. Here, a neutral palette and a subtle accent wall create a modern aesthetic, alongside 12-pane sash windows for a light-filled ambience. It is generously proportioned and it has a handy nook for a home workstation below fitted shelving. A handsome focal-point mantelpiece and a press cupboard add the finishing touches to this delightful reception area. At the south-facing rear is the dual-aspect dining kitchen, which has a modern, well-appointed design, with cabinets and workspace housing integrated appliances. Attractive splashbacks complete the fashionable look.
