High Valleyfield

High Valleyfield is a quiet village located approximately four miles from Dunfermline and within easy reach of the motorway network providing easy access to Glasgow and Edinburgh. The village has shops, school and nursery providing basic day to day necessities and Dunfermline is easily reached for a wider range of amenities. Approximately 1 mile away is The Royal Burgh of Culross (National Trust for Scotland) which lies 12 miles west of the Forth Road Bridge and is a picturesque coastal village dating back to medieval times. 16th and 17th Century Culross was a thriving community and sea port, as evidenced by the architectural style of the village and surrounding properties of the period. The village looks across the River Forth complimenting Culross's natural beauty. It benefits from a primary school, mobile post office, local pub and of course the historical Palace and grounds. Easy access is gained to the M90 motorway with its direct links to Edinburgh, Perth and Dundee and across the Kincardine Bridge by way of motorways to Stirling, Glasgow and the West. There is a regular and reliable bus service providing transport to other west fife villages or nearby Kincardine and Dunfermline where a wider range of amenities can be found.
